

some times in the office of ltd los angeles* presents Chelsea Knight

Searching for a Character | 17 January 2015

Opening Reception | 5-8p

Performance begins at 6pm

Chelsea Knight drives across the country and back in 2012. Along the way, local actors attempt to perform monologues and then, upon instruction, break character. They struggle to do this. Many fail.

On January 17th, 2015 at some times in the office of ltd los angeles, the project will be completed. Knight will bring together a variety of actors from Los Angeles who are willing to try again. Drinks will be served.

Special thanks to performers Patrick Michael Ballard, Bill Kates, Fred Schmidt-Arenales, and Philippa zu Knyphausen.

Chelsea Knight was born in Vermont and lives and works in New York. She received her B.A. from Oberlin College and her M.F.A. from the School of the Art Institute of Chicago. Knight completed residencies at the Whitney Independent Study Program (2010) and the Skowhegan School of Painting and Sculpture (2008), and was a Fulbright Fellow in Italy (2007). Solo exhibitions and performances include: The St. Louis Art Museum, The Brooklyn Museum, Aspect Ratio Gallery (Chicago), Momenta Art (Brooklyn), and Night Gallery (with Elise Rasmussen). Knight has exhibited and screened her work in group shows including Nouvelles Vagues at the Palais de Tokyo (Paris), Anti-Establishment at Bard CCS Hessel Museum, the Young Artists' Biennial (Bucharest), and the 10th Annual Istanbul Biennial. Knight will be a Spring 2015 Artist in Residence at the New Museum (NYC).
